What are group eisteddfods?

Dance eisteddfods are competitions held for young dancers. There are many held across Sydney and each year NSDA enters 5 high standard eisteddfods to compete with other top performing academies. Many of the students at these eisteddfods dance full time. Our group students are taught a 5 minute routine choreographed by NSDA faculty, which they perform as a team at all 5 eisteddfods.

Why audition for eisteddfod groups?

Being a part of a group teaches students teamwork, dedication, discipline, and how to work with a group of people, all vital skills for various aspects of life. A high level of technique is expected of each team member, so students involved in group eisteddfods improve their overall dancing proficiency. For those considering the option of becoming a professional dancer, eisteddfod group training teaches them how to be a part of an ensemble and increases their confidence performing on stage.

What is the expected commitment?

Being selected for an eisteddfod team involves a high level of dedication and commitment. Students are committing to:

- Attend all compulsory classes per week for their grade.
- Attend all eisteddfod group rehearsals.
- Attend 5 eisteddfods between April - August 2026 (including one which may fall in the July holidays).
- If in a 12 & u, 14 & u or open age group, attending January, April and July School Holiday Intensive sessions.
- Work to improve technique and performance ability over the year.
- Practice weekly at home to retain routine choreography.
- When a student is sick they are expected to watch rehearsals, unless they are too unwell to attend. NSDA must be given notice.
- If a student has a minor injury or illness on the day of eisteddfods they are expected to still attend. If they are too unwell, NSDA must be given as much notice as possible to re-space the routine.
- Family members coming to support their competing child and NSDA is greatly encouraged.

IMPORTANT NOTE: If students have holidays away planned, you would need to let us know as soon as possible so we can decide if being in an eisteddfod group will be possible for your child.

See the specific requirements for each group in more detail on the pages below.

Costuming, hair, make-up and uniform requirements for successful candidates:

North Shore Costume Hire (owned by North Shore Dance Academy) provides costumes for all of our group eisteddfod teams. We purchase, store, fit, adjust, clean and transport all costumes to and from eisteddfods so that parents don't need to do this.

Students need to wear stage make-up and hair for all eisteddfods.

Students will need to own the North Shore Dance Academy jacket to wear with their team on eisteddfod days.

What we are looking for in the auditions:

We are looking for technique, talent, effort and dedication in the auditions.

The technical aspects we are looking for are strength, flexibility, turnout, footwork, placement, posture, coordination and mastery of specific technical skills needed for the choreography.

We will also be looking for facial expression, responsiveness to music and stage presence.

The speed in which students can pick up choreography will also be taken into consideration, alongside receptiveness to corrections and eagerness to improve.

As we know the students from their classes, we will also be considering attendance, dedication, and work ethic.

A reminder that students who have been in eisteddfod groups in previous years do not necessarily have a place again each year, it is by invitation only.

What happens after the audition:

All students will receive an outcome letter via their parents email by the end of October.

If your child is successful and you choose to accept the invitation, we will send a team agreement form for parents and students to sign and you will attend the information night (if it is their first or second year in a group) before beginning rehearsals in November. We may also send out a few invitations for eisteddfod solos (by invitation only). If students are invited to do a solo after being accepted into an eisteddfod group, they cannot do solos instead of groups, they must do both.

If your child is unsuccessful, please know that we value them greatly as NSDA students however don't believe it is the right fit for them this year. They will each receive personal feedback so encourage them to continue working hard, apply the feedback and aim to audition again next year. Eisteddfod groups provide a non-essential addition to your child's training and all NSDA students will receive high level technical and artistic development by attending their weekly classes.

What to wear to auditions:

8 & Under, 10 & Under and 12 & Under Ballet: Ballet uniform and ballet shoes

14 & Under Ballet: Leotard, tights, pointe shoes.

Contemporary & Lyrical groups: Leotard, convertible black or pink tights, bare feet.

Before coming to the audition:

Ensure you have read through this document, and yourself and your child understand the commitment level required. Please also explain to your child that there is a chance they won't be given a place in the group, but that they are still valued as students at NSDA.
